

COURSE PLAN

42705 Knowledgebased Entrepreneurship, F10

Updated: 25 may 2010/version 1.04

Lectures from 13:00 to 17:00 at the latest, room 119, building 427.

1. Wednesday, 14 April 2010

Finalizing Team Formation

- Present yourself – prepare a 1 minute personal presentation
- Find your team during the first break.

Introduction:

- knowledge-based entrepreneurship
- the 42705 e'ship course incl.
 - Teaching materials
 - Web-site

The Basics of Entrepreneurship

- The entrepreneur: traits and working life
- Success and non-success in high-tec venturing

Visiting lecturers: Venture Cup. Michael Bak

2. Wednesday, 21 April

Opportunity-driven creativity

- The fabric of ideas
- Increase your creativity: a systematic approach to developing realistic business ideas with a perspective.

Set the Right Strategy

- From idea to business model: start-up strategies in high-tec venturing

Visiting lecturer: CONNECT Denmark. Henrik Brorsen

3. Wednesday, 28 April

From Vision to Action

- From business model to business plan: the basics in business planning.

Financing

- Basics in high tec venture financing
- Presenting the pre-seed and early-stage investors

Visiting lecturer: Seed Capital Denmark, Rasmus Bjerngaard

4. Wednesday, 5 May

Business Economics

- From action plan to cash flow projection to capital requirements + the rest of the budgets.

- Calculating a venture capital investment in a high-tec start-up.

Business Law

- Select the right type of corporation/enterprise
- Pro's and con's of holding companies
- Salaried Employees' Act
- Product Liability
- Agreements in trade and between shareholders

5. Wednesday, 12 May

IPR strategies for start-ups

- The IPR Protection Shield
- The basics of a patent
- Economy - IPR relationships for start-ups

Market Research and - Analysis

- Michael Porters Market model
- The 5-forces in action
- The value chain

Case: Theodor Nielsen, NIL Technologies

6. Wednesday, 19 May

Sales and marketing

- Sales strategies in high tech venturing
- What makes you a successful sales person?

Business management

- The art of business management
- The basics of running a board

7. Wednesday 26 May

Visiting lecturer: Vækstfonden (The Growthfund): Jacob Borup

Exams

- Formalities
- Present your business plan

Exit

- The course in retrospective
Entrepreneurship and the history of the European Ideas

Deadline, business plan:

Thursday 10 June 2010, 11:00 pm.

Exams:

Tuesday 15 June 2010

Details to follow