

Bain & Company's strategy workshops

Bain offers you a unique opportunity to apply for our exclusive workshop series on business strategy and personal development during Fall 2012 and Spring 2013. Together with a select group of students, you will gain insights into the tools and frameworks that we use daily at Bain to achieve results.

BAIN & COMPANY

Developing strategies that deliver results

How are enduring businesses built in a world of constant change?
What tools can you use to build successful strategies?

Tuesday, November 27th, 2012

Creating extraordinary teams

What characterizes your individual working style and how does that impact team dynamics?

How do you use team dynamics to create extraordinary results?

Thursday, December 13th, 2012

Framing and approaching strategic issues

How do we think about defining business issues with our clients?
What approach do we use to crack the business issues?

Thursday, February 21st, 2013

Integrative case solving experience

How do we combine the above elements to deliver results on strategic business issues?

Thursday, March 21st, 2013

Interested? Apply for these seminars by October 31st to line.karlsson@bain.com, including brief motivational letter, CV and latest grade transcripts. This program is offered to a small, select group of students and by application only. Please note that participation is expected in all four events.

We look forward to welcoming you to the seminars, taking place at our office at Forbindelsesvej 3, 2100 Copenhagen. If you have any questions, please contact paw.linnemann@bain.com or line.karlsson@bain.com